By signing, the applicant is granting permission for the town to perform site visits of the subject property. The applicant is also stating that the property affected by the application is exclusively owned by applicant or that the application is submitted with the consent of all owners of the property. The applicant also declares that the project permit application materials contain no known misrepresentations of fact, and that the proposed action, or design will not result in a structure, improvement, lot condition in violation of town code or standards.

The applicant bears the burden of proving that the application conforms to applicable elements of the town's development codes.
